DECISION¹ (ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS)

In this case under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program,² Special Master Zane issued a Decision on August 30, 2013. On January 16, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation concerning attorney's fees and costs in this matter. The parties' stipulation requests a total payment of $9, 271.74, representing attorney's fees and costs. In accordance with General Order #9, Petitioner's counsel noted that Petitioner incurred $161.31 in litigation costs out of this total amount.

¹ The undersigned intends to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, § 205, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (codified as amended at 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2006)). As provided by Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction "of any information furnished by that party (1) that is trade secret or commercial or financial information and is privileged or confidential, or (2) that are medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." Vaccine Rule 18(b). Otherwise, "the entire" decision will be available to the public. Id.

² The applicable statutory provisions defining the program are found at 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 et seq. (2006).

The undersigned finds that this petition was brought in good faith and that there exists a reasonable basis for the claim. Therefore, an award for fees and costs is appropriate, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(b) and (e)(1). The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding attorneys' fees and costs, on the terms set forth therein.

I hereby award a lump sum of $9,110.43, in the form of a check payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Katherine M. Gonyea, Esq. I additionally award the amount of $161.31, in the form of a check made payable to Petitioner.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review filed pursuant to Appendix B of the Rules of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
