Petitioners submitted their application for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent, requesting reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $11,516.43. Respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $11,516.43, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioners and Brennan, Robins & Daley, P.C. in the amount of $11,516.43.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.<sup>2</sup>
