ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS DECISION¹

On June 28, 2013, Robert M. Curry (“petitioner”) filed a petition pursuant to the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.² 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006). Petitioner alleged that he received a Diphtheria-Tetanus-acellular-Pertussis vaccine (DTaP) on June 14, 2010, and thereafter suffered an allergic autoimmune reaction which manifested in the form of persistent muscular and joint pain and disability which was caused in fact by the vaccination. See Petition at 1. On April 7, 2014, a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties’ stipulation was entered.

² The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program is set forth in Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2006) (Vaccine Act or the Act). All citations in this decision to individual sections of the Vaccine Act are to 42 U.S.C.A. § 300aa.

On May 15, 2014, the parties filed a Stipulation of Facts Concerning Attorneys' Fees and Costs. According to the stipulation, the parties stipulate to an award to petitioner of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $34,557.84. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner's counsel represents that petitioner advanced no out-of-pocket expenses in pursuing the petition.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of the parties' stipulation, the undersigned GRANTS the request for approval and payment of attorney's fees and costs.

Accordingly, an award should be made as follows:

in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and Thomas K. Brown, of the Brown Law Firm, LLP, in the amount of $34,557.84.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with the terms of the parties' stipulation.³
