¹ Because this decision contains a reasoned explanation for the undersigned's action in this case, the undersigned intends to post this ruling on the website of the United States Court of Federal Claims, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). As provided by Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction "of any information furnished by that party: (1) that is a trade secret or commercial or financial in substance and is privileged or confidential; or (2) that includes medical files or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." ² The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program is set forth in Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2012) (Vaccine Act or the Act). award. See Decision on J. Stip., filed Nov. 30, 2015.

On April 8, 2016, petitioner filed an amended³ application for attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner requests a total award of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $45,634.83. Amended Application for Fees and Costs at 1, filed Apr. 8, 2016. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner represents that he incurred reimbursable costs in pursuit of this claim in the amount of $19.99. See Petitioner and Counsel Statement at 1, filed Apr. 6, 2016.

On April 25, 2016, respondent filed a response to petitioner's application for attorneys' fees and costs, indicating that "respondent does not object to the overall amount sought, as it is not an unreasonable amount to have incurred for proceeding in this case to date." Response at 1, filed Apr. 25, 2016. Respondent further stated that her "lack of objection to the amount sought in this case should not be construed as an admission, concession, or waiver as to the hourly rates requested, the number of hours billed, or the other litigation related costs." Id.

The undersigned has reviewed the billing records and documentation of costs, and finds them reasonable. The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request, the undersigned GRANTS the request for approval and payment of attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, an award should be made as follows:

(1) in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and to petitioner's attorney, Ronald C. Homer, of Conway Homer & Chin-Caplan, in the amount of $45,634.83; and

(2) in the form of a check payable to petitioner only, in the amount of $19.99.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.
