DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES<sup>1</sup>

Vowell, Chief Special Master:

On August 29, 2014, Morgan Kruger filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> [the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”]. Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury resulting from the administration of an influenza vaccine on January 10, 2013. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 21, 2014, I issued a ruling on entitlement, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). On August 27, 2015, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation [“Proffer”] indicating petitioner should be awarded $150,000.00, representing all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner is entitled. Proffer at 1.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award petitioner a lump sum payment of $150,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Morgan Kruger. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>3</sup>

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On November 19, 2014, respondent filed a status report in which she conceded entitlement. On November 21, 2014, the Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement, finding that petitioner is entitled to compensation. Respondent now proffers that petitioner receive an award of a lump sum of $150,000.00, in the form of a check payable to petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner is entitled.<sup>1</sup> This proffer does not address final attorneys’ fees and litigation costs. Petitioner is additionally entitled to reasonable attorneys’ fees and litigation costs, to be determined at a later date upon petitioner submitting substantiating documentation.

Petitioner agrees with the proffered award of $150,000.00, as representing all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner is entitled.

<sup>1</sup> Should petitioner die prior to the entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future lost earnings, and future pain and suffering.
