RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Vowell, Chief Special Master:

On September 22, 2014, William Gable filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² [the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”]. The petition alleges that as a result of a influenza (“flu”) vaccination on October 18, 2013, petitioner suffered a shoulder injury. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On February 3, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report [“Respondent’s Report”], in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Report at 4. Specifically, respondent submits that “Mr. Gable suffered a non-Table injury of Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration and that the preponderance of the medical evidence indicates that the injury was causally related to the vaccination.” Id.

In view of respondent’s concession and the evidence before me, I find that petitioner is entitled to compensation.
