DECISION¹

On February 9, 2015, Madeline Moorman (“Petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 et seq. (2006) (“Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleged that she suffers from “constant debilitating headaches; chronic fatigue; depression” as a result of the Human Papillomavirus (“HPV”) vaccinations, more specifically Gardasil vaccinations, she received on February 3, 2012 and April 2, 2012². Petition (“Pet”) at 1-5. The undersigned now finds that the information in the record does not show entitlement to an award under the Program.

On November 4, 2015, Petitioner filed a Motion for Decision Dismissing her Petition. Motion, ECF No. 23. According to the motion, “[a]n investigation of the facts and science supporting Petitioner's claim has demonstrated that Petitioner will be unable to prove she is entitled to compensation in the Vaccine Program." Motion at 1. Petitioner further states that she understands that dismissal decision will result in a judgment against her, and that such a judgment will end all of her rights in the Vaccine Program. Id.

To receive compensation under the Vaccine Act, Petitioner must prove either 1) that she suffered a "Table Injury" – i.e., an injury falling within the Vaccine Injury Table – corresponding to one of her vaccinations, or 2) that she suffered an injury that was actually caused by a vaccine. See §§ 300aa-13(a)(1)(A) and 300aa-11(c)(1). An examination of the record did not uncover any evidence that Petitioner suffered a "Table Injury." Further, the record does not contain a medical expert's opinion or any other persuasive evidence indicating that her injuries were caused by a vaccination.

Under the Vaccine Act, a petitioner may not be awarded compensation based solely on the petitioner's claims alone. Rather, the petition must be supported by either medical records or by the opinion of a competent physician. § 300aa-13(a)(1). In this case, because the medical records are insufficient to establish entitlement to compensation, a medical opinion must be offered in support. Petitioner, however, has offered no such opinion.

Therefore, the only alternative remains to DENY this petition. Thus, this case is dismissed for insufficient proof. In the absence of a motion for review, the Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
