DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On June 16, 2015, Theodore John Thies (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”). Petitioner alleged that he suffered a shoulder injury as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered to him on October 9, 2013. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit (“SPU”) of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 6, 2015, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). On December 14, 2015, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $105,000.00. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $105,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Theodore John Thies.³ This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

No. 15-609V (ECF)
CHIEF SPECIAL MASTER
NORA BETH DORSEY

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On August 6, 2015, the Chief Special Master found that a preponderance of the medical evidence indicates that petitioner suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”), which was causally related to the flu vaccination he received on October 9, 2013. The parties proceeded thereafter to address the amount of compensation to be awarded in this case.

I. Item of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded a total lump sum of $105,000.00, which amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Petitioner agrees.

¹ Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future lost earnings, and future pain and suffering, and the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $105,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner.

Petitioner agrees.
