RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On July 23, 2015, Jane Baker (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² [the “Vaccine Act”]. Petitioner alleges that as a result of receiving the influenza (“flu”) vaccine on October 15, 2014, she suffered from “frozen shoulder and subdeltoid bursitis” in her left shoulder that was caused in fact by her flu vaccination. Petition at 1, 4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 30, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 3. Specifically, respondent states “petitioner has met the statutory requirements for entitlement to compensation. Therefore, based on the record as it now stands, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act.” Id. at 4 (citations omitted). Respondent further states that the records show that petitioner suffered the sequela of her injury for more than six months. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent’s concession and the evidence presented, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.
