RULING ON ENTITLEMENT<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 13, 2015, Cheryl Pedraza (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> [the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”]. Petitioner alleges that as a result of receiving the influenza (“flu”) vaccine on October 14, 2014, she suffered a right shoulder injury that was caused in fact by her vaccination. Petition at 5. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 18, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that petitioner’s injury is consisted with shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA), and that it was caused in fact by the flu vaccine she received on or about October 14, 2014. Id. at 4-54. Respondent further states that there are no other causes identified for petitioner's injury and the records show that petitioner suffered the sequela of her injury for more than six months. Thus, respondent states that "petitioner has met the statutory requirements for entitlement to compensation." Id.

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence presented, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.
