RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 29, 2015, Anthony Nelson (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”). Petitioner alleges that he received an influenza (“flu”) vaccine on December 4, 2014, and thereafter suffered a left shoulder injury. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit (“SPU”) of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 16, 2015, respondent filed a Rule 4(c) report in which she conceded entitlement to compensation. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1, 4. Specifically, respondent concluded that the preponderance of evidence establishes that the injury to petitioner’s left shoulder was caused-in-fact by the administration of the December 4, 2014, flu vaccine, and that petitioner’s injury is not due to factors unrelated to the administration of that vaccine. Id. at 4. Additionally, respondent stated that the medical evidence reflects that petitioner has suffered the condition for more than six months. Id. In light of the foregoing, respondent has concluded that petitioner's left shoulder injury is compensable under the Act as a "caused-in-fact" shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA"). Id. at 5.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
