DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 29, 2015, Anthony Nelson (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”). Petitioner alleged that as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination on December 4, 2014, he suffered a left shoulder injury. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit (“SPU”) of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 18, 2015, the undersigned issued a ruling on entitlement finding petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On February 10, 2016, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $85,000.00. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $85,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Anthony Nelson. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Compensation for Vaccine Injury-Related Items

On December 18, 2015, the Chief Special Master issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding that petitioner was entitled to vaccine compensation for his Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). Based on the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $85,000.00. This amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner be made through a lump sum payment of $85,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner.¹ Petitioner agrees.

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case.
