RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On October 16, 2015, Ms. Alexander filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury, including tendinitis, as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine she received on October 24, 2012. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 25, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that “compensation is appropriate in this case.” Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that “petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act.” Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
