RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On November 2, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury as a result of her November 13, 2014 influenza (“flu”) vaccination. Petition at ¶¶ 3-4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 22, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent “concluded that petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with SIRVA [shoulder injury related to vaccine administration]; that a preponderance of the evidence establishes that her SIRVA was caused-in-fact by the flu vaccination she received on November 13, 2014; and that no other causes for petitioner’s SIRVA were identified.” Id. at 2. Respondent also agrees that “the statutory six month sequela requirement has been satisfied.” Id. Respondent further indicates that “based on the current record, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act.” Id.

In view of respondent’s concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
