RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On December 15, 2015, Tonya Brock (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury after receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccine on October 20, 2014. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 6, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that petitioner’s “alleged injury is consistent with shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA), and that it was caused-in-fact by the flu vaccine she received on October 20, 2014.” Id. at 3. Respondent further states that petitioner had demonstrated that she “suffered the sequela of her injury for more than six months.” Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
