RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On January 27, 2016, Julie Fisk (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”). Petitioner alleges that her receipt of a Twinrix (hepatitis A and B) vaccine on February 13, 2014, caused her to suffer a shoulder injury. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit (“SPU”) of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 8, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Rule 4(c) Rep. at 1. Specifically, respondent stated, based on her evaluation of the evidence, that petitioner’s injury is consistent with shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”), and that the injury was caused-in-fact by her vaccination. Id. at 3. Respondent further stated that she did not identify any other causes for petitioner's SIRVA, and that petitioner's medical records demonstrated that she has suffered the residual effects of her condition for more than six months. Id. Petitioner has therefore satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
