DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On May 25, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered injuries, including left rotator cuff syndrome, as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered to his left deltoid on November 7, 2014. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 20, 2016, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation. On September 30, 2016, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $76,380.24. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $76,380.24, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Gilmore Wright, II. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On July 18, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) Report, in which she recommended that the Court find petitioner, Gilmore Wright, II, entitled to compensation for a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). On July 20, 2016, the Court entered its Ruling on Entitlement, finding petitioner entitled to compensation. Respondent now proffers that petitioner receive an award of compensation as follows:

A lump sum of $76,380.24 in the form of a check payable to petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner is entitled.¹

Petitioner agrees with the proffered award of $76,380.22.²

² This proffer does not include any award for attorneys’ fees and costs that may be awarded pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).
