RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On June 30, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury following his October 6, 2015 influenza vaccination. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On January 12, 2017, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent “has determined that the alleged injury is consistent with SIRVA [i.e. shoulder injury related to vaccine administration] that was caused by the administration of petitioner’s influenza vaccination”. Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that no other cause for petitioner’s injury was identified, that petitioner suffered residual effects of his injury for more than six months, and that petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Vaccine Act. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
