DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 13, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) following influenza (“flu”) vaccinations on September 25, 2013. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 21, 2017, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a SIRVA. On May 25, 2017, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $71,012.26. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $71,012.26 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Mark David Lundin. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Items of Compensation

For purposes of this proffer, the term “vaccine-related” is as described in Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report, filed on March 20, 2017, conceding entitlement in this case. Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $71,012.26, which represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) for his vaccine-related injury.¹ Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $71,012.26 in the form of a check payable to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAD A. READLER
Acting Assistant Attorney General

¹ Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future lost earnings, and future pain and suffering.
