DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 30, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered an injury to her left shoulder as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered on October 3, 2013. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 13, 2017, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). On August 7, 2017, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $70,000.00. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $70,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Susan Wigley. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Items of Compensation

On July 18, 2017, Chief Special Master Dorsey issued an Order finding that petitioner’s case was entitled to vaccine compensation for her Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (SIRVA). Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $70,000.00, which represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $70,000.00, in the form of a check payable to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case.

Respectfully submitted,
