Attorneys' Fees and Costs

Ronald Craig Homer, Conway, Homer, P.C., Boston, MA for petitioner.

Lynn Christian Schlie, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., for respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On February 16, 2017, Eric LaPierre filed a petition seeking compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program ("Vaccine Program"). Petitioner alleges that he experienced an unspecified peripheral neuropathy/polyneuropathy (most likely manifesting as small fiber sensory neuropathy) due to receipt of the tetanus-diphtheria-acellular pertussis ("Tdap") vaccine on June 11, 2014. On October 16, 2019, the previously assigned special master filed his decision denying the petitioner entitlement to compensation. Decision, ECF No. 37.²

On February 7, 2020, petitioner filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs. Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs. ECF No. 43. Petitioner requests compensation in the amount of $78,524.93, representing $62,204.95 in attorneys' fees and $16,319.98 in costs. Fees App. at 1 – 2. Pursuant to General Order No. 9, petitioner warrants that he has not personally incurred costs in pursuit of this litigation. Fees App. at 2. Respondent filed his response on February 13, 2020, indicating that he “is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys’ fees and costs are met in this case.” Response, ECF No. 85, at 2. Petitioner did not file a reply to respondent’s response. ECF No. 45. The matter is now ripe for disposition.

Vaccine Rule 18(b). Otherwise the whole decision will be available to the public in its current form. Id.

For the reasons discussed below, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner’s motion and awards a total of $78,524.93.

I. Discussion

Under the Vaccine Act, the special master shall award reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs for any petition that results in an award of compensation. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1). When compensation is not awarded, the special master “may” award reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs “if the special master or court determines that the petition was brought in good faith and there was a reasonable basis for the claim for which the petition was brought.” Id. at §15(e)(1). Here, although petitioner’s claim was eventually dismissed, the undersigned does not doubt that it was filed in good faith. Additionally, the undersigned finds that the claim had a reasonable basis to proceed. Respondent also has not challenged the reasonable basis of the claim. Accordingly, petitioner is entitled to a final award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

a. Reasonable Attorneys’ Fees

The Federal Circuit has approved use of the lodestar approach to determine reasonable attorney’s fees and costs under the Vaccine Act. Avera v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 515 F.3d 1343, 1349 (Fed. Cir. 2008). Using the lodestar approach, a court first determines “an initial estimate of a reasonable attorney’s fee by ‘multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation times a reasonable hourly rate.’” Id. at 1347-58 (quoting Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888 (1984)). Then, the court may make an upward or downward departure from the initial calculation of the fee award based on other specific findings. Id. at 1348.

Counsel must submit fee requests that include contemporaneous and specific billing records indicating the service performed, the number of hours expended on the service, and the name of the person performing the service. See Savin v. Sec’y of Health and Human Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are “excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary.” Saxton v. Sec’y of Health and Human Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). It is “well within the special master’s discretion to reduce the hours to a number that, in [her] experience and judgment, [is] reasonable for the work done.” Id. at 1522. Furthermore, the special master may reduce a fee request sua sponte, apart from objections raised by respondent and without providing a petitioner notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (2009).

A special master need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of a petitioner’s fee application when reducing fees. Broekelschen v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 102 Fed. Cl. 719, 729 (2011). Special masters may rely on their experience with the Vaccine Program and its attorneys to determine the reasonable number of hours expended. Wasson v. Sec’y of Health and Human Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. 482, 484 (Fed. Cl. Nov. 19, 1991) rev'd on other grounds and aff'd in relevant part, 988 F. 2d 131 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Just as "[t]rial courts routinely use their prior experience to reduce hourly rates and the number of hours claimed in attorney fee requests ... [v]accine program special masters are also entitled to use their prior experience in reviewing fee application." Saxton, 3 F. 3d at 1521.

i. Reasonable Hourly Rates

Petitioner requests the following hourly rates for the work of his counsel, Mr. Ronald Homer at the following: $409 per hour for work performed in 2017, $421 per hour for work performed in 2018 and $430.00 per hour for work performed in 2019. Fees App. 43 at 32. Petitioner also requests rates for associate attorneys between $205 - $350, depending on associate and the year billed (the billing records indicate that the majority of attorney work was performed by Ms. Lauren Faga, with supporting work from Ms. Christina Ciampolilo, Mr. Joseph Pepper, and Ms. Meredith Daniels). Petitioner also requests rates for paralegals and law clerks at the rates of $138 - $152. Id. These rates are consistent with what Mr. Homer and his associates have previously been awarded for work in the Vaccine Program, and the undersigned finds the rates to be reasonable in this case as well.

ii. Reasonable Hours Expended

The undersigned has reviewed the submitted billing entries and finds the total number of hours billed to be reasonable. The billing entries accurately reflect the nature of the work performed and the undersigned does not find any of the entries to be objectionable. Respondent also has not indicated that he finds any of the entries to be objectionable either. Accordingly, petitioner is entitled to the full amount of attorneys' fees sought, $62,204.95.

b. Attorneys' Costs

Petitioner requests a total of $16,319.98 in attorneys' costs. This amount is comprised of acquiring medical records, travel costs for petitioner, expert fees and the Court's filing fee. Fees App. Ex. 2 at 1. All of these costs are typical of Vaccine Program litigation and petitioner has provided adequate documentation supporting them. Accordingly, the requested attorneys' costs are reasonable, and petitioner shall be fully reimbursed.

II. Conclusion

Based on all of the above, the undersigned finds that it is reasonable compensate petitioner and his counsel as follows:

Attorneys' Fees Requested	$62,204.95
(Total Reduction from Billing Hours)	-
Total Attorneys' Fees Awarded	$62,204.95
Attorneys' Costs Requested	$16,319.98

(Reduction of Costs)	-
Total Attorneys' Costs Awarded	$16,319.98
Total Attorneys' Fees and Costs Awarded	$78,524.93

Accordingly, the undersigned awards $78,524.93 in attorneys' fees and costs, in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and petitioner's counsel, Mr. Ronald Homer.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the Clerk of Court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with this decision.³
