DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On May 24, 2017, Anita Burgess ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² ("Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered significant aggravation of her pre-existing autoimmune condition as a result of a tetanus-diphtheria-acellular pertussis vaccination administered on August 8, 2014. Following petitioner's motion for a ruling on the record, the undersigned issued her decision dismissing the petition on November 7, 2022. (ECF No. 107).

¹ This Decision will be posted on the website of the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. As provided by 44 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4)(B), however, the parties may object to the published Decision's inclusion of certain kinds of confidential information. Specifically, Under Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction "of any information furnished by that party: (1) that is a trade secret or commercial or financial in substance and is privileged or confidential; or (2) that includes medical filed or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." Vaccine Rule 18(b). Otherwise the whole decision will be available to the public in its current form. Id.

² The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program is set forth in Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755, codified as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (2012) ("Vaccine Act" or "the Act"). All citations in this decision to individual sections of the Vaccine Act are to 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa.

On January 22, 2023, petitioner filed an application for attorneys' fees and costs. Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs (ECF No. 111). Petitioner requests compensation in the amount of $106,482.55, representing $81,011.05 in attorneys' fees and $25,471.50 in attorneys' costs. Fees App. at 1. Pursuant to General Order No. 9, petitioner has stated that she has personally incurred costs totaling $495.83 in pursuit of her petition. Id. at 2. Respondent filed his response on January 24, 2023, indicating that he "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Response at 2 (ECF No. 112). Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter. The matter is now ripe for disposition.

For the reasons discussed below, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion and awards a total of $106,318.38.

I. Discussion

Under the Vaccine Act, the special master shall award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs for any petition that results in an award of compensation. 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(1). When compensation is not awarded, the special master "may" award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs "if the special master or court determines that the petition was brought in good faith and there was a reasonable basis for the claim for which the petition was brought." Id. at §15(e)(1). In this case, although the petition was eventually dismissed, the undersigned is satisfied that both good faith and reasonable basis existed throughout the case

a. Reasonable Attorneys' Fees

The Federal Circuit has approved use of the lodestar approach to determine reasonable attorney's fees and costs under the Vaccine Act. Avera v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 515 F.3d 1343, 1349 (Fed. Cir. 2008). Using the lodestar approach, a court first determines "an initial estimate of a reasonable attorney's fee by 'multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended on the litigation times a reasonable hourly rate.'" Id. at 1347-58 (quoting Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 888 (1984)). Then, the court may make an upward or downward departure from the initial calculation of the fee award based on other specific findings. Id. at 1348.

Counsel must submit fee requests that include contemporaneous and specific billing records indicating the service performed, the number of hours expended on the service, and the name of the person performing the service. See Savin v. Sec'y of Health and Human Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are "excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Saxton v. Sec'y of Health and Human Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). It is "well within the special master's discretion to reduce the hours to a number that, in [her] experience and judgment, [is] reasonable for the work done." Id. at 1522. Furthermore, the special master may reduce a fee request sua sponte, apart from objections raised by respondent and without providing a petitioner notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (2009).

A special master need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of a petitioner's fee application when reducing fees. Broekelschen v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 102 Fed. Cl. 719, 729 (2011). Special masters may rely on their experience with the Vaccine Program and its attorneys to determine the reasonable number of hours expended. Wasson v. Sec'y of Health and Human Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. 482, 484 (Fed. Cl. Nov. 19, 1991) rev'd on other grounds and aff'd in relevant part, 988 F. 2d 131 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Just as "[t]rial courts routinely use their prior experience to reduce hourly rates and the number of hours claimed in attorney fee requests ... [v]accine program special masters are also entitled to use their prior experience in reviewing fee application." Saxton, 3 F. 3d at 1521.

i. Reasonable Hourly Rates

Petitioner requests the following hourly rates for the work of her counsel: for Ms. Renee Gentry, $424.00 per hour for work performed in 2017, $435.00 per hour for work performed in 2018, $440.00 per hour for work performed in 2019, $464.00 per hour for work performed in 2020, $489.00 per hour for work performed in 2021, and $504.00 per hour for work performed in 2022. and for Mr. Cliff Shoemaker, $430.00 per hour for work performed in 2016, $440.00 per hour for work performed in 2017, $450.00 per hour for work performed in 2018, and $460.00 per hour for work performed in 2019. These rates are consistent with what counsel have previously been awarded for their Vaccine Program work, and the undersigned finds them to be reasonable herein.

ii. Reasonable Hours Expended

In reducing an award of fees, the goal is to achieve rough justice, and therefore a special master may take into account their overall sense of a case and may use estimates when reducing an award. See Florence v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., No. 15-255V, 2016 WL 6459592, at *5 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Oct. 6, 2016) (citing Fox v. Vice, 563 U.S. 826, 838 (2011)). It is well established that an application for fees and costs must sufficiently detail and explain the time billed so that a special master may determine, from the application and the case file, whether the amount requested is reasonable. Bell v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 18 Cl. Ct. 751, 760 (1989); Rodriguez, 2009 WL 2568468. Petitioner bears the burden of documenting the fees and costs claimed. Id. at *8.

The undersigned has reviewed the submitted billing entries and finds the total number of hours billed to be largely reasonable. The only reduction the undersigned finds necessary is for time billed by a paralegal, Ms. Knickelbein. Her billing entries are comprised of duplicative review of orders which counsel already billed to review. Upon review, the undersigned finds a reduction of $660.00 to be appropriate.

Accordingly, petitioner is awarded final attorneys' fees in the amount of $80,351.05.

b. Attorneys' Costs

Petitioner requests a total of $25,471.50 in attorneys' costs. Most of this amount is for work performed by a medical expert, Dr. Joseph Bellanti, with the remainder comprised of photocopies, acquiring medical records, and a court transcript. The undersigned has reviewed the requested costs and finds them to be reasonable and supported with appropriate documentation. Accordingly, the full amount of costs shall be awarded.

c. Petitioner's Costs

Pursuant to General Order No. 9, petitioner has indicated that she has personally incurred costs of $495.83 in pursuit of her petition. This amount is comprised of postage, notary service, and the Court's filing fee. The undersigned finds these costs to be reasonable and they shall be fully reimbursed.

II. Conclusion

Based on all of the above, the undersigned finds that it is reasonable compensate petitioner and her counsel as follows:

Attorneys' Fees Requested	$81,011.05
(Total Reduction from Billing Hours)	- ($660.00)
Total Attorneys' Fees Awarded	$80,351.05
Attorneys' Costs Requested	$25,471.50
(Reduction of Costs)	-
Total Attorneys' Costs Awarded	$25,471.50
Total Attorneys' Fees and Costs Awarded	$105,822.55
Petitioner's Costs	$495.83
Total Amount Awarded	$106,318.38

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the following:

- 1) a lump sum in the amount of $105,822.55, representing reimbursement for petitioner's attorneys' fees and costs, in the form of a check payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel, Ms. Renee Gentry; and
- 2) a lump sum in the amount of $495.83, representing reimbursement for petitioner's costs, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the Clerk of Court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
