DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 20, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of a tetanus diphtheria acellular pertussis (“Tdap”) vaccine she received in her left upper arm on January 1, 2016. Petition at 1-2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 6, 2018, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for her SIRVA. On August 14, 2018, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $110,000.00 (including unreimbursable expenses totaling $9,533.25, with the remainder representing an award for actual and projected pain, suffering, and emotional distress). Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award.

¹ Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned intends to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $110,000.00 (including unreimbursable expenses totaling $9,533.25, with the remainder representing an award for actual and projected pain, suffering, and emotional distress) in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Joan M Douglass. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.

RESPONDENT'S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On June 5, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) Report, in which he recommended that the Court find petitioner entitled to compensation, and on June 6, 2018, the Court entered its Ruling on Entitlement, finding petitioner entitled to compensation. Respondent now proffers that petitioner receive an award of a lump sum of $110,000.00 (including unreimbursable expenses totaling $9,533.25, with the remainder representing an award for actual and projected pain, suffering, and emotional distress) in the form of a check payable to petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which petitioner is entitled.¹

Petitioner agrees with the proffered award of $110,000.00.²

¹ Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future pain and suffering, and future lost wages.

² This proffer does not include any award for attorneys' fees and costs that may be awarded pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e).
