RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 22, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she sustained a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) caused by the influenza (“flu”) vaccine she received on September 29, 2016. Petition at 1-2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On February 28, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that the Division of Injury

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Compensation, Department of Health and Human Services (“DICP”) has concluded that that the alleged injury is consistent with a right SIRVA and that it was “caused in fact by the influenza vaccine petitioner received on September 29, 2016.” Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that “based on the record as it now stands, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act”. Id.

In view of respondent’s position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
