RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 25, 2017, Richard Brandell (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered Guillain-Barre syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine he received on October 27, 2014. Petition at 1, 4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 15, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent concludes “that petitioner’s alleged injury meets the requirement of the Vaccine Injury table for GBS following the seasonal influenza vaccination... Petitioner had the onset of GBS within three to forty-two days of receiving the flu vaccine, the diagnosis is not in dispute, and no other cause for his GBS have been identified.” Id. at 6. Respondent further agrees that “petitioner’s records show that he suffered sequela of his injury for more than six months after vaccination.” Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent’s position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
