DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 16, 2017, Ryan Thompson, ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration as a result of the influenza ("flu") vaccine administered on October 6, 2016. (Petition at 1). On March 5, 2020, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 63).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated April 8, 2020, (ECF No. 67), requesting a total award of $22,963.90 (representing $22,333.50 in fees and $630.40 in costs). In accordance with General Order #9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (ECF No. 67-3). Respondent reacted to the motion on April 15, 2020 indicating that she is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case and defers to the Court's discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 68). On April 15, 2020, Petitioner filed a reply requesting that the Court award Petitioner all fees and costs requested in Petitioner's Application. (ECF No. 69).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. § 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $22,963.90 (representing $22,333.50 in fees and $630.40 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel.³ In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.
