RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Items of Compensation

On November 19, 2018, respondent conceded that entitlement to compensation was appropriate under the terms of the Vaccine Act. On November 20, 2018, Chief Special Master Dorsey issued a Ruling on Entitlement, finding that petitioner was entitled to vaccine compensation for her Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $118,067.62. The award is comprised of the following: $110,000.00 for pain and suffering; $3,265.52 for past out-of-pocket medical expenses; and $4,802.10 for past wage loss. This amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $118,067.62, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.¹ Petitioner

¹ Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future pain and suffering.
