RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On September 20, 2018, Thomas Creely filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered from Guillain-Barre Syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine received on February 2, 2017. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 21, 2019, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that it is his position that Petitioner suffered from GBS and has satisfied the criteria set forth in the Table and the Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation Id. at 7.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
