On September 20, 2018, Staci Broadway ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. (ECF No. 44).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated July 14, 2021, (ECF No. 49), requesting a total award of $32,023.83 (representing $30,110.70 in fees and $1,913.13 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (Id. at 2). Respondent reacted to the motion on July 16, 2021, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, and defers resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. (ECF No. 50). Petitioner filed a reply on July 16, 2021, requesting that the Court award all fees and costs requested in Petitioner's application. (ECF No. 51).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $32,023.83 (representing $30,110.70 in fees and $1,913.13 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
