Lisa Ann Watts, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On January 15, 2019, Galia Greenberg filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a left Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (SIRVA) after receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccine on October 25, 2016. Petition at 2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 26, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent “conclude[es] that Petitioner suffered a SIRVA of the left shoulder as defined by the Vaccine Injury Table.” Respondent further agrees that Petitioner had no recent history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction of her left shoulder; the onset of pain occurred within 48 hours after receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; the pain was limited to the shoulder where the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain Petitioner’s left shoulder symptoms. In addition, Petitioner suffered the residual effects of her condition for more than six months. Id. at 4-5.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
