No. 19-117V
Special Master Christian J. Moran

Filed: November 3, 2021

Stipulation; influenza (“flu”) vaccine; encephalitis; cerebral venous thrombosis.

Thomas W. Costello, Costello, Valente & Gentry, Brattleboro, VT, for Petitioner; Wei Kit Tai, United States Dep’t of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

UNPUBLISHED DECISION¹

On November 2, 2021, the parties filed a joint stipulation concerning the petition for compensation filed by Steven Ovenden on January 23, 2019. Petitioner alleged that the influenza (“flu”) vaccine he received on December 7, 2017, which is contained in the Vaccine Injury Table (the “Table”), 42 C.F.R. §100.3(a), caused him to suffer encephalitis and cerebral venous thrombosis. Petitioner further alleges that he suffered the residual effects of this injury for more than six months. Petitioner represents that there has been no prior award or settlement of a civil action for damages on his behalf as a result of his condition.

¹ The E-Government Act, 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the parties have 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

Respondent denies that the flu vaccine either caused petitioner to suffer from encephalitis or cerebral venous thrombosis or significantly aggravated petitioner's alleged injuries.

Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto. The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

Damages awarded in that stipulation include:

A lump sum payment of $65,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment according to this decision and the attached stipulation.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.

² Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties can expedite entry of judgment by each party filing a notice renouncing the right to seek review by a United States Court of Federal Claims judge.
