DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On February 22, 2019, Vera Leftridge filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration as a result of an influenza vaccine administered on December 2, 2017. (Petition at 1). On April 3, 2020, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 30).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated May 18, 2020, (ECF No. 36), requesting a total award of $20,016.13 (representing $19,252.30 in fees and $763.83 in costs). Pursuant to General Order #9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she did not incur out-of-pocket expenses in pursuit of her claim. (ECF No. 26-3). Respondent reacted to the motion on May 22, 2020, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case and defers to the Court's discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 37). Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. § 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $20,016.13 (representing $19,252.30 in fees and $763.83 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel.³ In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.
