SUSAN LEONE,

Petitioner,

v.

SECRETARY OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES,

Respondent.

Filed: July 30, 2025

Leah VaSahnja Durant, Law Offices of Leah V. Durant, PLLC, Washington, DC, for Petitioner.

Debra A. Filteau Begley, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On March 11, 2019, Susan Leone filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a Table Injury – a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”) – as a result of an influenza vaccine received on September 12, 2017. Petition, ECF No. 1 at 1. On August 20, 2024, I issued a decision

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

awarding compensation to Petitioner, following briefing and expedited Motions Day argument by the parties. ECF No. 65.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $64,942.23 (representing $62,620.90 for fees and $2,321.33 for costs). Petitioner's Motion for Fees and Costs filed Mar. 12, 2025, ECF No. 71. In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id. at 2.

Respondent reacted to the motion on March 26, 2025, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, 3 n.2, ECF No. 72. On April 11, 2025, Petitioner filed a reply, criticizing Respondent's hourly rate discussion and reiterating her previous fees request. ECF No. 73.

Having considered the motion along with the invoices and other proof filed in connection, I find a reduction in the amount of fees to be awarded appropriate, for the reason set forth below.

ANALYSIS

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Counsel must submit fee requests that include contemporaneous and specific billing records indicating the service performed, the number of hours expended on the service, and the name of the person performing the service. See Savin v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are "excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Saxton v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). It is "well within the special master's discretion to reduce the hours to a number that, in [her] experience and judgment, [is] reasonable for the work done." Id. at 1522. Furthermore, the special master may reduce a fee request sua sponte, apart from objections raised by respondent and without providing a petitioner notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (2009). A special master need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of petitioner's fee application when reducing fees. Broekelschen v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 102 Fed. Cl. 719, 729 (2011).

The petitioner “bears the burden of establishing the hours expended, the rates charged, and the expenses incurred.” Wasson v. Sec’y of Health & Hum. Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. 482, 484 (1991). The Petitioner “should present adequate proof [of the attorney’s fees and costs sought] at the time of the submission.” Wasson, 24 Cl. Ct. at 484 n.1. Petitioner’s counsel “should make a good faith effort to exclude from a fee request hours that are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary, just as a lawyer in private practice ethically is obligated to exclude such hours from his fee submission.” Hensley, 461 U.S. at 434.

ATTORNEY FEES

The rates requested for work performed through the end of 2025 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations, and will therefore be adopted. Leah Durant utilized her 2024 hourly rate for one entry related to work performed in 2025. ECF No. 71-1 at 16 (entry dated 2/24/25). And she correctly reduced her rate when performing work that does not require attorney expertise. E.g., id. at 12 (entry dated 3/29/22).

Regarding the number of hours billed, I deem the total amount of time devoted to briefing damages to be excessive. See Status Report, filed Feb. 25, 2022, ECF No. 49 (reporting an impasse in the parties’ damages discussions); Petitioner’s Brief on Damages, filed Mar. 31, 2022, ECF No. 52; Petitioner’s Reply to Respondent’s Brief on Damages, June 22, 2022, ECF No. 56. Petitioner’s counsel expended approximately 24.5 hours drafting the damages brief and 20.0 hours drafting a reply, totaling 44.5³ hours. ECF No. 71-1 at 11-12.

My above calculation does not include time spent preparing the initial demand which would have informed this later work, and I am therefore awarding fees associated with that task in full. ECF No. 71-1 at 5-7. Nor am I counting time spent communicating with Petitioner and preparing additional supporting documentation such as affidavits or signed declarations, which is also being awarded in full. See, e.g., id. at 11 (entries dated 3/23/22, 3/29/22, 5/31/22).

It is unreasonable for counsel to spend so much time briefing the issue of damages in this case, where the issues presented are not complex. I have identified numerous cases (which may reasonably be compared to time spent in this matter),⁴ in which attorneys have accomplished this task in about half the time.⁵

⁴ Special masters may use comparisons to attorneys performing similar tasks to determine if hours are excessive. See Saxton v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1518-1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Of course, having prevailed in this case, a fees award is generally appropriate. Leone v. Sec’y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 19-0360V, 2024 WL 4250815 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Aug. 20, 2024) (also found at ECF No. 65). And I awarded past pain and suffering compensation ($207,000.00) that was closer to the amount proposed by Petitioner ($225,000.00), as opposed to $160,000.00 proposed by Respondent, in this SIRVA case involving multiple surgeries. Id. at *1, 5. But the Act permits only an award of a reasonable amount of attorney’s fees. The overall number of hours were excessive, and Petitioner briefed the issue of lost wages - without addressing the amount that may have been covered by her workers’ compensation award as instructed. Id. at *4-5. Accordingly, I will reduce the sum to be awarded for entitlement damages briefing (a total of 44.5 hours, or $18,690.00) by thirty percent. Such an across-the-board reduction (which I am empowered to adopt)⁶ fairly captures the overbilling evidenced by this work, without requiring me to act as a “green eye-shaded accountant” in identifying with specificity each objectionable task relevant to this one sub-area of work performed on the case. This results in a reduction of $5,607.00.⁷

⁶ Special masters are permitted to employ percentage reductions to hours billed, provided the reduction is sufficiently explained. See, e.g., Abbott v. Sec’y of Health & Hum. Servs., 135 Fed. ⁷ This amount is calculated as follows: 44.5 hrs. x $420 x .30 = $5,607.00.

ATTORNEY COSTS

Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 71-2. And Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought. ECF No. 72.

CONCLUSION

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $59,335.23 (representing $57,013.90 for fees and $2,321.33 in costs) to be paid through an ACH deposit to Petitioner's counsel's IOLTA account for prompt disbursement. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.⁸
