DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On April 2, 2019, Keith Cousens filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered Guillain-Barré Syndrome as a result of his influenza vaccine received him on September 23, 2017. (Petition at 1-4). On November 6, 2020, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 42).

¹ Because this unpublished Decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I am required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated February 11, 2021 (ECF No. 47), requesting an award of $75,508.34 (representing $73,753.60 in fees and $1,754.74 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that he has incurred out-of-pocket expenses in the amount of $3.92. (ECF No. 47-3). Respondent reacted to the motion on February 16, 2021, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case and defers to the Court's discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 48). On February 17, 2021, Petitioner filed a reply requesting fees and costs be awarded in full. (ECF No. 49).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, Petitioner is awarded the total amount of $75,512.26³ as follows:
