RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On July 15, 2019, Jason Rosenberg filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered on September 29, 2018. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 14, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent has concluded that “[P]etitioner’s claim meets the

Table criteria for SIRVA.” Id. at 3. Respondent further agrees that the records show that the case was timely filed; that the vaccine was received in the United States; and that Petitioner satisfies the statutory severity requirement by suffering the residual effects or complications of his injury for more than six months after vaccine administration. Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
