Kristen Linnea Blume, Richard Gage P.C., Cheyenne, WY, for petitioner.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On July 18, 2019, Karen Hoisington filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered Guillain-Barré Syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination administered on October 25, 2017. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 26, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent concluded that Petitioner suffered GBS following a flu vaccine within the Table time period, and there is not a preponderance of medical evidence that Petitioner’s GBS was due to a factor unrelated to the vaccination. Id. at 5.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Respondent further agrees that the claim meets the statutory severity requirements because Petitioner experienced sequelae of GBS for more than six months. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
