RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On July 30, 2019, Richard P. Johnson filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered Guillain-Barré Syndrome (“GBS”) as defined on the Vaccine Injury Table after receiving an influenza vaccine on August 21, 2016. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 29, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent “concluded that [P]etitioner suffered GBS following a flu vaccine within the Table time period.” Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that “based on the record as it now stands, compensation is appropriate, as [P]etitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act.” Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
