On October 1, 2020, Jennifer Sepate filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") which meets the Table definition, after receiving an influenza ("flu") vaccine she received on October 17, 2019. Petition at 1, ¶¶ 2, 17. On November 30, 2022, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. ECF No. 36.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated January 21, 2023 (ECF No. 41), requesting a total award of $29,935.22 (representing $29,071.20 in fees and $864.02 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, counsel for Petitioner represents that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. ECF No. 41 at 3. Respondent reacted to the motion on January 23, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded at the Court's discretion. ECF No. 42. On January 23, 2023, Petitioner filed a reply stating she "does not intend to file a substantive reply to Respondent's response." ECF No. 43.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $29,935.22 (representing $29,071.20 in fees and $864.02 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Shannon Law Group, P.C. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
