OFFICE OF SPECIAL MASTERS
No. 20-1363V

CINDY SMITH,

Petitioner,

SECRETARY OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES,

Respondent.

Chief Special Master Corcoran

Filed: July 31, 2025

Leah VaSahnja Durant, Law Offices of Leah V. Durant, PLLC, Washington, DC, for Petitioner.

Dorian Hurley, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 13, 2020, Cindy Smith filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") following an influenza vaccine she received on October 30, 2019. Petition at 1. On July 29, 2024, I issued a decision finding Petitioner entitled to compensation and awarding damages, following briefing and expedited Motions Day argument by the parties. ECF No. 39.

¹ Because this Decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action taken in this case, it must be made publicly accessible and will be posted on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, and/or at <https://www.govinfo.gov/app/collection/uscourts/national/cofc>, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2018) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $82,928.09 (representing $80,880.20 for fees and $2,047.89 for costs). Petitioner's Application for Fees and Costs filed Feb. 21, 2025, ECF No. 44. In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id. at 2.

Respondent reacted to the motion on March 12, 2025, representing that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, 3 n.2, ECF No. 46. On March 13, 2025, Petitioner filed a reply, criticizing Respondent's hourly rate discussion and reiterating her previous fees request. ECF No. 47.

Having considered the motion along with the invoices and other proof filed in connection, I find reductions in the amount of fees and costs to be awarded appropriate, for the reasons set forth below.

ANALYSIS

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Counsel must submit fee requests that include contemporaneous and specific billing records indicating the service performed, the number of hours expended on the service, and the name of the person performing the service. See Savin v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are "excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Saxton v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). It is "well within the special master's discretion to reduce the hours to a number that, in [her] experience and judgment, [is] reasonable for the work done." Id. at 1522. Furthermore, the special master may reduce a fee request sua sponte, apart from objections raised by respondent and without providing a petitioner notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (2009). A special master need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of petitioner's fee application when reducing fees. Broekelschen v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 102 Fed. Cl. 719, 729 (2011).

The petitioner "bears the burden of establishing the hours expended, the rates charged, and the expenses incurred." Wasson v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. 482, 484 (1991). The Petitioner "should present adequate proof [of the attorney's fees and costs sought] at the time of the submission.” Wasson, 24 Cl. Ct. at 484 n.1. Petitioner’s counsel “should make a good faith effort to exclude from a fee request hours that are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary, just as a lawyer in private practice ethically is obligated to exclude such hours from his fee submission.” Hensley, 461 U.S. at 434.

ATTORNEY FEES

The rates requested for work performed through the end of 2024 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations, and will therefore be adopted. Leah Durant utilized her 2024 hourly rate for one entry related to work performed in 2025. ECF No. 44-1 at 14 (entry dated 2/13/25). And the attorneys in this case correctly reduced their rates when performing work that does not require attorney expertise. E.g., id. at 10 (entry dated 3/10/23).

Regarding the number of hours billed, I deem the total amount of time devoted to briefing entitlement and damages to be excessive. See Petitioner’s Brief on Entitlement and Damages, filed Mar. 14, 2023, ECF No. 27; Petitioner’s Reply to Response to Petitioner’s Brief on Entitlement and Damages, filed June 29, 2023, ECF No. 32; Minute Entry, dated June 28, 2024 (for expedited hearing that same day). Petitioner’s counsel expended approximately 39.7 hours drafting the entitlement and damages briefing and 21.3 hours drafting a reply, totaling 61.0³ hours. ECF No. 44-1 at 8-12.

My above calculation does not include time spent preparing the initial demand which would have informed this later work, and I am therefore awarding fees associated with that task in full. ECF No. 44-1 at 7-8. Nor am I counting time spent communicating with Petitioner and preparing additional supporting documentation such as affidavits or signed declarations, which is also being awarded in full. See, e.g., id. at 9-11 (entries dated 2/16/23, 3/7/23, and 5/11/23).

It is unreasonable for counsel to spend so much time briefing, even the matter of both entitlement and damages in this case, where the issues presented are not complex. I have identified numerous cases (which may reasonably be compared to time spent in this matter),⁴ in which attorneys have accomplished this task in about half the time.⁵

³ This total is calculated as follows: 1.5 hours billed on 8/1/22 (portion of entry only), by Leah Durant at a rate of $441; and 59.5 hours billed on 1/12/23 (portion of entry only), 3/3/23, 3/7/23, 3/8/23, 3/9/23, 3/10/23, 3/14/23, 5/1/23, 5/3/23, 5/10/23, 5/14/23, and 6/27/23 by Glen MacLeod at a rate of $553.

Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs.*, No. 20-0135V (June 8, 2023) (11.6 and 3.8 hours billed for drafting an entitlement and damages brief and responsive entitlement and damages brief, respectively); Merson v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 18-0589V (May 18, 2023) (9.8 hours billed for drafting an entitlement and damages brief – although some time was doubtlessly saved by my March 9, 2020 factual ruling finding an appropriate pain onset); C.H. v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-0249V (May 16, 2023) (12.9 and 6.1 hours billed for drafting an entitlement and damages brief and responsive entitlement and damages brief, respectively). These decisions can (or will) be found on the United States Court of Federal Claims website, and/or at <https://www.govinfo.gov/app/collection/uscourts/national/cofc> (last visited Dec. 6, 2024).

Of course, having prevailed in this case, a fees award is generally appropriate. Smith v. Sec’y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-1363V, 2024 WL 4250815 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. July 29, 2024) (also found at ECF No. 39). But the Act permits only an award of a reasonable amount of attorney’s fees. The only issues being contested in this case were pain onset and the appropriate amount of pain and suffering. Id. at *2-3, 5-6; see 42 C.F.R. § 100.3(a)(XIV)(B) & (c)(10)(ii) (required pain onset timing). Thus, the circumstances of this case did not warrant devoting so much time to briefing.

Accordingly, I will reduce the sum to be awarded for entitlement damages briefing (a total of 61.0 hours, or $33,565.00) by thirty percent. Such an across-the-board reduction (which I am empowered to adopt)⁶ fairly captures the overbilling evidenced by this work, without requiring me to act as a “green eye-shaded accountant” in identifying with specificity each objectionable task relevant to this one sub-area of work performed on the case. This results in a reduction of $10,069.50.⁷

ATTORNEY COSTS

Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 44-2. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought. ECF No. 46. However, the receipt and internal documentation related to the filing fee show its amount paid was $400.00, not $403.00 as Petitioner seeks. ECF No. 44-2 at 10; see also ECF No. 1. This results in a reduction of $2.00.

CONCLUSION

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner’s Motion for attorney’s fees and costs. I award a total of $72,856.59 (representing $70,810.70 for fees and $2,045.89 in costs) to be paid through an ACH deposit to Petitioner’s counsel’s IOLTA account for prompt disbursement. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall ⁶ Special masters are permitted to employ percentage reductions to hours billed, provided the reduction is sufficiently explained. See, e.g., Abbott v. Sec’y of Health & Hum. Servs., 135 Fed. Cl. 107, 111 (2017); Raymo v. Sec’y of Health & Hum. Servs., 129 Fed. Cl. 691, 702-704 (2016); Sabella v. Sec’y of Health & Hum. Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 214 (2009).

⁷ This amount is calculated as follows: $($441 \times 1.5 \text{ hrs.} + $553 \times 59.5 \text{ hrs.}) \times .30 = $10,069.50$.
