DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On November 12, 2020, Jenna Roberts filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration as a result of an influenza vaccine she received on October 23, 2019. Petition at ¶¶ 6, 14-15. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 12, 2022, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for her SIRVA. ECF No. 29. On May 31, 2022, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $120,387.59 (representing $120,000.00 in actual and projected pain and suffering and $387.59 in past unreimbursed expenses). Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. at 2. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $120,387.59 (representing $120,000.00 in actual and projected pain and suffering and $387.59 in past unreimbursed expenses) in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

RESPONDENT'S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On May 11, 2022, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) Report, recommending that the Court find petitioner entitled to compensation specifically for a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) and related sequelae, regarding which petitioner is entitled to a presumption of causation under the Vaccine Injury Table. ECF No. 28. The Court found petitioner entitled to compensation accordingly in a May 12, 2022 Ruling on Entitlement. ECF No. 29. Respondent now proffers that petitioner be awarded a lump sum of $120,387.59, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, for all damages available pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Of this total amount, $120,000.00 represents an award for actual and projected pain and suffering at net present value, and $387.59 represents an award for past unreimbursed expenses. Petitioner is a competent adult, and accordingly, guardianship documentation is not required.

Petitioner has reviewed the foregoing and concurs. Petitioner agrees with the proffered award of $120,387.59.²
