RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On November 18, 2020, Kaitlin McKenzie filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination received on October 2, 2019. Petition at ¶¶ 6, 22. Petitioner further alleges that her “vaccine related injuries have lasted more than six months.” Petition at ¶ 24. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On February 14, 2022, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Petitioner had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction of her left shoulder; medical records document that pain occurred within 48 hours after receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; pain was limited to the left shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain Petitioner's shoulder pain. Id. at 7. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner suffered residual effects of her injury for more than six months. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
