DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On December 15, 2020, Lindsay Geraghty filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that that she suffered right shoulder injuries related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine received on October 2, 2019. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccine was administered in the United States, she experienced residual effects of her condition for more than six months, and she has not received compensation in the form of an award or settlement for her vaccine-related injuries nor has she filed a civil action for her injuries. Petition at ¶¶ 3, 14-16, 18. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

On June 15, 2022, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On June 20, 2022, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation ("Proffer") indicating Petitioner should be awarded $45,340.87. Proffer at 2. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $45,340.87 (representing $45,000.00 in pain and suffering and $340.87 in past unreimbursable expenses) in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
