On December 18, 2020, Mykayla Carollo filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner further alleges that the vaccination was administered within the United States, her left shoulder injuries and sequelae lasted more than six months, and neither Petitioner nor any other party has ever filed any action or received any compensation in the form of award or settlement for her vaccine-related injuries. Petition at 1-3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 14, 2022, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent determined that "[P]etitioner has satisfied the criteria set forth in the Vaccine Injury Table ("Table") and the Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation ("QAI") for SIRVA." Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that "[P]etitioner timely filed her case, that she received the flu vaccine in the United States, and that she satisfies the statutory severity requirement by suffering the residual effects or complications of her injury for more than six months after vaccine administration." Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.
