RULING ON ENTITLEMENT<sup>1</sup>

On December 23, 2020, Ann Swales filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) after receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccination on October 22, 2019. Petition at 2. Petitioner further alleges she had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction in her left shoulder prior to vaccination, that pain offered within forty-eight hours after vaccination, and that she has suffered the residual effects of her condition for more than six months]. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 6, 2024, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent has indicated that, based on the record as it now stands, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id. at 10.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
