Chief Special Master Corcoran

Filed: November 22, 2024

Emily Beth Ashe, Anapol Weiss, Philadelphia, PA, for Petitioner.

Alexis B. Babcock, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On June 24, 2021, Mary Ann O'Donnell filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Respondent conceded that Petitioner had suffered Guillain Barré syndrome ("GBS") after receipt of an influenza vaccine administered on October 1, 2019, as listed on the Vaccine Injury Table. On November 20, 2023, I issued a decision awarding damages to Petitioner, following briefing by the parties. ECF No. 57.

¹Because this Decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action taken in this case, it must be made publicly accessible and will be posted on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, and/or at <https://www.govinfo.gov/app/collection/uscourts/national/cofc>, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2018) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $41,380.77 (representing $39,009.00 for fees and $2,371.77 for costs). Petitioner's Application for Attorneys' Fees, filed May 22, 2024, ECF No. 63. In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner represents that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. ECF No. 63-3.

Respondent reacted to the motion on May 22, 2024, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, 3 n.2, ECF No. 64. Petitioner has not filed a reply.

The rates requested for work performed through the end of 2024 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations, and will therefore be adopted.

I also note this case required additional briefing regarding the issue of damages. See Petitioner's Brief in Support of Damages, filed May 18, 2023, ECF No. 53; Petitioner's Reply Brief in Support of Damages, filed Aug. 2, 2023, ECF No. 56. Petitioner's counsel expended approximately 15.9 hours drafting the damages brief and 6.4 hours drafting the reply brief, totaling 22.3 hours. ECF No. 63 at 16-17. I find this time to have been reasonably incurred. (And all time billed to the matter was also reasonably incurred.)

Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs, ECF No. 63-2. And Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought. I have reviewed the requested costs and find them to be reasonable.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). I award a total of $41,380.77 (representing $39,009.00 for fees and $2,371.77 for costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Anapol Weiss. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
