

Programs (“DICP”), Department of Health and Human Services concluded that Petitioners alleged injury was consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). ECF No. 46 at 3. Accordingly, Respondent indicated that based on his review of the record Petitioner satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id. I subsequently issued an entitlement decision the following day. ECF No. 47.

On August 24, 2023, Respondent filed a proffer proposing an award of compensation, and to which Petitioner concurs. ECF No. 48. I have reviewed the file, and based upon that review I conclude that the Respondent’s proffer (as attached hereto) is reasonable. I therefore adopt it as my decision in awarding damages on the terms set forth therein.

The Proffer awards:

- A lump sum payment of $100,224.57, representing compensation for pain and suffering ($100,000.00) plus past unreimbursable expenses ($224.57), in the form of a check payable to Petitioner.

Proffer at II. These amounts represent compensation for all elements of compensation under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a) to which Petitioner is entitled.

I approve a Vaccine Program award in the requested amount set forth above to be made to Petitioner. In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the Clerk of the Court is directed to enter judgment herewith.<sup>3</sup>
