RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On March 11, 2022, Cassie Karpenski filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered Guillain-Barré syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine she received on September 8, 2020. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that she suffered the injury for longer than six months. Petition at ¶¶ 3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On January 9, 2023, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

1. Specifically, Respondent states that “petitioner has satisfied the criteria set forth in the Vaccine Injury Table (‘Table’) and the Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation (‘QAI’) for GBS, with an onset of symptoms from three to forty-two days following flu vaccination...” Id. at 7. Respondent further agrees that “[w]ith respect to other statutory and jurisdictional issues, the records show that the case was timely filed, the vaccine was received in the United States, and petitioner satisfies the statutory severity requirement because the residual effects or complications of her injury continued for more than six months after vaccine administration.” Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
