Catherine Elizabeth Stolar, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On April 25, 2022, Corinne Fenn filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that R.F. suffered an intussusception following receipt of his second dose of the rotavirus vaccine on August 18, 2021. Petition, ECF No. 1. On

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

March 12, 2024, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 34.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $21,879.30 (representing $20,778.90 in fees plus $1,100.40 in costs). Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed June 27, 2024, ECF No. 39. Furthermore, counsel for Petitioner represents that Petitioner incurred no personal out-of-pocket expenses. Id. at 2.

Respondent reacted to the motion on June 28, 2024, indicating that he is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Motion at 2-3, ECF No. 40. Petitioner filed no reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates. Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. Motion at 19-31. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought. I find the requested costs reasonable and hereby award them in full.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $21,879.30 (representing $20,778.90 in fees plus $1,100.40 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Paul R. Brazil. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
