Scott B. Taylor, Urban & Taylor, SC, Milwaukee, WI, for Petitioner.

Jennifer A. Shah, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 20, 2022, Lashawn L. Long filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that he suffered a Table injury – a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration as a result of his receipt of an influenza vaccination on October 13, 2021. Petition, ECF No. 1. On January 31, 2024, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 25.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $19,343.24 (representing $18,607.40 in fees plus $735.84 in costs). Application for Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed Feb. 16, 2024, ECF No. 29. Furthermore, Petitioner filed a signed statement representing that Petitioner incurred no personal out-of-pocket expenses. ECF No. 29-6.

Respondent reacted to the motion on Mar. 1, 2024, reporting that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, ECF No. 30. Petitioner filed a reply stating that she does not intend to file a substantive reply to Respondent's response. ECF No. 31.

The rates requested for work performed through the end of 2023 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations and will therefore be adopted. Petitioner has also requested the hourly rate of $538 for 2024 work performed by attorney Scott B. Taylor, representing a rate increase of $56. Motion at 7. I find the requested increase to be reasonable and will award the attorney's fees requested. And all time billed to the matter was also reasonably incurred.

Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 29-4. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought. I find the requested costs to be reasonable and shall award them in full.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $19,343.24 (representing $18,607.40 in fees plus $735.84 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Scott B. Taylor. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
