DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On October 31, 2023, Blessing Maduagwu filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that he suffered a Table injury - shoulder injury related to vaccine administration as a result of the administration of his September 23, 2022 influenza vaccination. Petition, ECF No. 1. On February 19, 2025, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. ECF No. 18.

Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed February 26, 2025, ECF No. 22. Furthermore, Petitioner represents that no personal out-of-pocket expenses were incurred. ECF No. 22-3.

Respondent reacted to the motion on March 11, 2025, indicating that he is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Motion at 2-4, ECF No. 23. Petitioner filed a reply asserting that his Petitioner for fees and costs is reasonable and well supported. ECF No. 24.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates. Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 22-2. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought. I find the requested costs reasonable and hereby award them in full.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. Petitioner is awarded attorneys' fees and costs in the total amount of $13,536.67 (representing $13,038.70 in fees plus $497.97 in costs) to be paid through an ACH deposit to Petitioner's counsel's IOLTA account for prompt disbursement. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³
